Your Billing Rights This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us In case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill If you think that your statement is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your statement, please write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after the end of the statement period on your account history on which the error or problem appeared. The monthly statement period at the Credit Union ends the last day of each month. The quarterly statement period at the Credit Union ends the last day of March, June, September, and December. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter please give us the following information: Your name and account number; The dollar amount of the suspected error; Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error; If you need more information, describe the item that you are not sure about.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice We must acknowledge your letter within thirty (30) days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within ninety (90) days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct. After we receive your letter we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance changes, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay the finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due. If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone that we report you to when the matter between us has finally been settled. If we do not follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even it the bill was correct.

Special Rule For Credit Card Purchases If you have a problem with the quality of the property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right: (a) You must have made the purchase in your home state, or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your mailing address; and (b) The purchase price must have been more than $50. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

CREDIT PLANS

Plan R Regular 30 Day Term Accounts – based on a monthly billing cycle and monthly statements will be prepared on the 1st business day of each month for the previous month. All credit purchases and all payments occurring after the last day of the month will appear on your next monthly statement. Your Plan R account is due and payable in full on or before the last day of the month following purchase. If the amount due is not paid on or before the due date a FINANCE CHARGE is imposed at a periodic rate of 1½ % per month (or a minimum charge of one dollar per month for amounts under $34.00) on the "Amount Due".

The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of the FINANCE CHARGE is 18%.

Special Note: The disclosure of finance charge and the manner in which it is determined is not an invitation or authorization to pay your account in monthly installments. All accounts are due in full on the due date.
