HELPING YOUR NEW DOG SETTLE

Bringing home a new dog is a wonderful moment in a family's story. Dogs offer endless love, companionship, and fun, but if you want to build a good relationship with your new pet, you need to start on day one. Here are some tips for helping your mew pup help him settle in.

GIVE SOME SPACE

As tempting as it may be to shower your new pet with love during the first few days, it's kinder to give him a little space.

MAINTAIN A ROUTINE

Giving food and water at the same time each day lets dogs know they can count on their next meal, and regularly scheduled trips to the bathroom take care of any nervous bladder issues.

EASE INTO INTRODUCTIONS

If you have other pets at home, hold off before introducing them to the newest addition.

BE PATIENT

It's natural to want your new pet to be perfect, but the truth is that dogs rarely come as finished products.
