

Kitchen and Bath Sales Professional – Excellent work environment with an industry leader in the building trade

We are a well-established provider of all types of home and agricultural building supplies located in Darke County, Ohio. This position affords you the opportunity to work with some of the best in the business and to advance as your performance merits. Good insurance and stable employment are hallmarks of our business.

The Company: Ansonia Lumber is an established leader in Western Ohio and Eastern Indiana since 1909. We are part of one of the nation's largest buying groups in the industry and have an extensive inventory and established vendors to facilitate successful selling. We are known for the great care we take with clients and employees alike.

- We are about getting the work done-but we are still a private, family owned business that operates with a personal touch that you just can't find with big multi-unit corporations.
- We have been voted the area leader in our industry for the past 11 consecutive years.

The Position: We're looking for a kitchen and bath designer. The compensation is commensurate with experience.

- We offer paid vacation, paid holidays, health insurance, training and educational opportunities, 401k plan.
- We also offer a degree of flexibility that many of our employees find helpful in juggling life occurrences.

Requirements:

- You must be a good communicator and organized. Being energetic and self-motivated will bring you the most success. Having a previous experience in kitchen and bath design will increase your likelihood of being an ideal candidate.

Responsibilities:

- Responsibilities include being knowledgeable of products, assisting and advising customers with projects, designing, quoting and following up with kitchen and bath projects. Mastery of our design and POS software will need to be acquired.

The Location: Ansonia Lumber is in mid-Darke County Ohio, just a few miles from the Indiana border. This is a great small and quiet community with an excellent school system. We regularly service a 40 mile area.

Please apply in person at 300 S Main, Ansonia; or mail resume to PO Box 247 Ansonia, OH 45303, or email resume to (ansonialumber.hr@gmail.com.)
